

Getting Started with the ePortfolio

The ePortfolio (electronic portfolio) is a versatile form of assessment that captures the multifaceted dimensions of the student learning process. As a learning and assessment tool, it has the potential to document a rich and holistic view of student progress and development over time while also serving as a valuable resource to showcase skills and competencies that may be relevant for future employers and continuing education.

This set of factsheets offers a quick overview of the ePortfolio to give you practical and actionable guidance on the essentials.
